Admission Requirements

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in Year Up! We provide ambitious urban high school graduates and GED recipients from low to moderate-income families with an opportunity to pursue computer training and earn college credits. After successful completion of the first six months, you will have an opportunity to work as an information technology intern in a corporate setting. This will help you prepare for jobs and further education.

This packet explains what is required of you throughout the admissions process and how to contact us for additional help. An application and other forms are also included. Please fill out this application carefully; make sure you answer all questions. If you have any questions, please contact us and we'll be happy to answer them. We welcome you to the admissions process and look forward to receiving your application!

Best Regards,
The Year Up Staff

For the Recommender

Dear Respondent,

The young person named above is applying for a one-year educational and internship opportunity with Year Up. Year Up is a nonprofit organization that gives urban young adults the opportunity to learn technical and professional skills (first six months) and apply those skills in a professional setting through an internship with a corporate partner (second six months), while earning a stipend throughout the program.

Candidates must show a tremendous amount of commitment, character, competency, and initiative throughout their one-year commitment. Your observations of the applicant's character, leadership ability, computer skills, and aptitude will play a role in determining the applicant's suitability for this program.

Please provide your recommendation through your answers to the questions below. Upon completion, this reference form should be sealed in an envelope with your signature written across the seal, and returned to the applicant to submit to Year Up.

Thank you for your time! Your input is important to us and we look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
The Year Up Admissions Committee
